Archive for the 'Cool Breeze Coffee Table' category This table from Cool Breeze shows an interesting contrast in style and color. Having been designed primarily for outdoor use, the Cool Breeze table comes in a range of interesting colors. This is a simply stunning modern outdoor table from Cool Breeze (made from resin and stainless steel). The modern and streamlined design is enhanced by the flat and stainless steel face of the table. The table and the face are available in black. The stainless steel legs are textured and are also available in black. There is also a stainless steel table base which can be used with any of the tables, simply by placing the metal legs through the holes in the base. This is a modern and stylish table from Cool Breeze (made from resin and steel). The table is available in a range of attractive and distinctive colors. The legs are available in a range of colors to match the color of the table top. There is also a grey version of the table in which the legs are black. This table from Cool Breeze is mainly made from polymeric resin and stainless steel (although the legs are steel).
